5 Reasons You Need a Travel Protection Plan

1. You've invested a significant expense in your trip. If you have to cancel, you could lose that money.

Cancelling a trip is disappointing enough. You don't want to lose your entire trip investment on top of it. The Trip Cancellation benefit, for example, may cover you if you or a family member becomes ill or seriously injured before your trip, or if there's a death in the family. Other examples could be a natural disaster impacting your home or destination, a strike, or terrorism in your destination. Under the Plus and Elite plans, there are more covered reasons, such as being laid off from your job or if your travel supplier (such as an airline) goes bankrupt. You can read all covered reasons for the Trip Cancellation benefit in the plan. For increased flexibility, you can also upgrade your plan with the Cancel For Any Reason/Interruption For Any Reason (CFAR/IFAR)* option.

(CFAR/IFAR is available for an additional cost on the Plus & Elite plans if purchased within 21 days of the date your initial trip deposit is received. Other conditions apply. CFAR not available to residents of NY; IFAR not available to residents of NY or WA. Must cancel at least two days prior to your trip departure date. Read plan document for full details.)*

2. Once you've departed on your trip, plans can still go wrong.

Unfortunately, baggage loss or damage is not uncommon. Neither are travel delays. Our plans offer coverage for these scenarios. And if your trip is interrupted due to an unforeseen event, our plans may cover that too. Read the full list of covered reasons for Trip Interruption in the plan document.

3. Coverage is important in case you get sick or injured while away from home.

Did you know many health insurance plans provide little to no coverage outside the U.S.? Medicare often provides none. If you get sick or injured on your trip (including domestic travel), medical expense coverage is important, as medical care can be very expensive. The Accident & Sickness Medical Expense benefit can reimburse you for covered medical expenses incurred on your trip.

The protection plan also includes coverage for Emergency Medical Evacuation for medically necessary transportation to the nearest hospital or appropriate facility, following a covered unforeseen sickness or injury that is acute, severe or life threatening, if adequate treatment is not available in your immediate area. Read plan document for details on these benefits.

Life is full of the unexpected. So is travel, which is why we love it.

But sometimes things can go wrong.

Be prepared for unwelcome disruptions with a Travel Protection Plan.

4. The Travel Protection Plan gives you access to global 24/7 assistance services (non-insurance).

Let's say your passport was lost or stolen at the airport. Or your prescription medications were left behind in a hotel. Or you twisted your ankle and need to find a doctor. Who do you call or where do you go for help? Your plan comes with access to 24/7 non-insurance Travel Assistance services, available at any time, from anywhere in the world. If at any point you have a question during your trip or need assistance, you can call the numbers provided and speak to someone in your native language.

5. Peace of mind can help you enjoy your trip to the fullest.

We hope your trip goes smoothly. But think of your non-refundable financial trip expenses. Would you want to protect your investment? And perhaps more importantly, think of the expenses you could face if you become sick or injured while traveling and need emergency medical care or a medical evacuation. Having a travel protection plan in place can help make your trip more enjoyable and relaxing. And that's the whole point, right?
